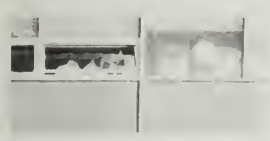
In Memory of

Brian Crowell
1985 - 1997



As the tears roll down my face,
I pray my friend's in a better place,
Why did it have to be my best friend?
Why did it have to come to an end?
This is an awful nightmare,
I hope I'll wake up and he'll be there,
But I know the bullet went down to his chest,
and now he's laid to rest.
I never thought on Christmas Eve,
That bad news to me would be received,
If I had known his lights would dim,
I would have told Brian that I loved him,
But it's too late now,
The curtain fell and he took a bow,
I remember I started to cry,
Just thinking why my friend had to die,
Every morning when I awaken,
The first thing in my head is "His life has been taken,"
I have nothing more to say but God rest his soul and I'll always love you, Brian Crowell.
